Gardening
Society

Nymans Garden (NT), Handcross, West Sussex & Herstmonceux Castle Gardens, Hailsham, East Sussex

Nymans Garden was developed, in the late 19th century, by three generations of the Messel family, and was brought to renown by Leonard Messel. It is one of the National Trust's premier gardens and showcases year-round colour and interest with rare and unusual plant collections of national significance. The Rose garden is scented by hints of old-fashioned roses. Discover hidden corners through stone archways, walk along tree-lined avenues, all the while surrounded by the lush countryside of the Sussex Weald.

Herstmonceux is renowned for its magnificent moated castle, set in 550 acres of glorious parkland & superb Elizabethan gardens. You will find formal gardens, including a walled garden dating from before 1570, a herb garden, the Shakespeare garden, woodland sculptures, the pyramid, the water lily filled moat and the Georgian style folly.
